Speakers:

Adam Bissey our Carpet Care Specialist, will be hosting the event. An IICRC certified journeyman, textile cleaner and installer, he has been in the carpet maintenance and installation business for over twenty years. Recognizing a need for a full-service Carpet Care supply/support facility in Central/South Jersey, Adam has put together a full line of complementary chemicals and equipment to service local companies and contractors for their everyday trade needs.

Joe Raccuia is the Director of Sales for Accommodation Mollen, Supply King and the Cleaners ProShop. Joe is not only running the sales department, but also conducts the training for our sales team. Joe has been in this industry thirteen years, training and working with customers and solving their cleaning needs.
